Reader's Opinions

I found this at a thrift store. I love this book especially the historical information found on each page. Its fun to see where so many foods people eat today got their origin and to see what a girl like Addy would have eaten during the Civil War. I've tried the grits as well as the fried apples, both are delicious! Looking forward...

Some of these recipes were a little bit bland, but I would say that was because of historical accuracy. The collard greens and chicken shortcake recipes were the best of the bunch, but the pound cake was a very close third. Thoroughly enjoyed recreating...
