Reader's Opinions

I'm sad to see this title go. The first volume and most of the second were tied up in the trinity war / forever evil cross over events and it was only in the final parts of this volume that Pandora got to have a story line of her own.

This volume illustrates one of my pet peeves about modern comics. Multi-title crossover events are a pain in the butt, especially when the publisher decides to split the story up by title instead of collecting the entire thread into one volume. What we have here is basically 1/3 of a coherent story taking up about half of this book....
